Free Newcomer Services

DIVERSEcity's Free Newcomer Services can help permanent residents and protected persons with information and support to build the life they want in Canada.

Together, we will create a customized settlement plan to help you and your family get the resources you need for your education and employment goals, and your health and wellbeing. Our services include:

- Support in completing and submitting government forms and applications
- Information on employment, job search and training
- Registration for English language classes
- Help navigating housing, health care, schools, banking and public transportation
- Workshops on various topics on living in Canada
- Programs for children, youth, parents and seniors
- And more ...
